

Good morning.
user1

Hi how are you today
user2

I believe that Republicans are more hypocritical than Democrats.
user1

Good, and you?
user1

Im good. Want to expand more on that?
user2

The reason I say this says we can talk about gun rights and abortions. They're all about free will when it comes to guns but they want to oppose abortion period to me that is hypocritical.
user1

What are your thoughts?
user1

Republicans are all for gun rights and opposing abortions
user1

Well, that is true because I see no reason why you see something being evident but you wanna do yours in a different way and thats exactly what the republicans are all about
user2

To me that is hypocritical because they want some people to have rights but women not to have rights as it relates to abortion.
user1

You hit the nail on the head!
user1

These two issues are really concerning but it doesnt move any republican as much
user2

Other than abortion and gun rights do you find any other issues that Republicans may be hypocritical about?
user1

There are so much harm to be done when they allow guns rather than disallow it but I don't know why they won't see it from that angle
user2

Oh yes I do, Immigration!
user2

I agree with you wholeheartedly. I believe that if Republicans were not getting kickbacks from the NRA or gun rights activists they would be singing a different tune.
user1

Yes immigration explanation point they don't want strangers entering the country but if their family members are immigrants they want them in the country!
user1

They really want to expel these little kids that really are innocent. They know nothing and I think whatever we teach them now, they will grow to uphold them. what do you think?
user2

Take trump and melania is an example. Melania is a immigrant and so are her parents but trump allowed her parents to come over and stay.
user1

That is one hypocritical situation
user2

Absolutely
user1

very evident... They want things to work their way but won't let it slide when it happens to any one else
user2

So we have three topics where we believe Republicans are hypocritical. One being immigration. 2 being abortion. And three being gun rights. These are some pretty serious topics do you have any others that you can think of off the top of your head?
user1

Thinking about another one, what do you think Republicans think about racial minorities?
user2

Also another thing that's hypocritical is the border wall. Trump wanted that border wall so he took money away from other programs and military when he indicated how important military people were.
user1

So our military and defense lines are really short-funded?
user2

Yes I do think that Republicans do not support movements like the black lives matter but I'm not sure how we could tie them to being hypocritical. Can you give me an example?
user1

I believe trump cut military spending in diverted money away from the military to build part of that border wall that was never completed
user1

Well I think we really hit on three great topics where we believe Republicans are hypocritical. Have really enjoyed our conversation
user1

We have less than a minute to go was there anything else you would like to add?
user1

ABOUT the BLM, I think republicans back up the BLUE LIFE MATTERS and think racial minorities should go back to where they came from
user2
